

Profession Comparisons

Professional Organizers (Residential) and Other Fields

By Terry Prince, CPO-CD © 2012

Professions	Work and Tasks Performed
	Works in Residential Space	Works with Individual Person	Works with Residential Possessions	Works on Behavior Modification	Works on Time Management Skills	Work with other Household Members In Residence
Professional Organizer				Some <sup>5.</sup>		Some <sup>5.</sup>
Medical Professionals <sup>1.</sup>
Mental Health <sup>2. &amp; 3.</sup>	Some <sup>6.</sup>
Social Services <sup>4.</sup>
Code and Fire
Law or peace
Architect
Interior Designer
Life or AD/HD Coach
Housecleaner
Junk Removal
Interior Home Stager
In-home Care Provider			Some <sup>7.</sup>
Occupational Therapist			Some		Some	Some <sup>8.</sup>
Visiting Nurse						Some <sup>8.</sup>

1. Licensed Medical Professionals - See other specific profession – In-home Care Providers, Occupational Therapists and Visiting Nurses
2. Psychologist, Licensed Therapists, MFT's.
3. A few psychologists specializing in hoarding will now make initial or limited house calls.
4. Social service providers may visit the residence, but will not generally work with residential Possessions.
5. Skill sets of more advanced or trained professional organizers.
6. Hoarding Specialists may visit residential space.
7. Movement and usage of possessions may be involved, but not organizational arrangements.
8. Visiting Nurse and Occupational Therapists may work with household members providing care to primary client.